Must – see places in the USA

Niagara Falls, renowned for its beauty, is a huge tourist attraction. It is composed of two major parts: the Horseshoe Falls on the Canadian side and the American Falls on the American side. It forms the international border between the Canadian province of Ontario and the U.S. state of New York. It is very popular with honeymooners. It has featured in lots of films. The most famous are a thriller, Edinburgh, with Marilyn Monroe and an adventure film, Pirates of the Caribbean: At World's End, with Johnny Depp.

Are you a nature lover? Are you fond of boating, camping, fishing and horse riding? Do you want to see the world's largest collection of geysers? Then you should visit Yellowstone National Park. It is in three states of Wyoming, Montana and Idaho. It was America's first national park, established in 1872. Yellowstone National Park has an area of 8 983 square kilometres with beautiful lakes, canyons, rivers, forests and mountains. The Park is well-known for its wildlife. It is home to grizzly bears, white-tailed deer, mountain lions, wolves, bison, elk, and many other mammals.

Would you like to visit a modern vibrant city with a rich history and a significant present? Add Boston to your holiday plans. It is the place where the American Revolution started, and that's why there are so many spots of historic interest there. In Boston you can visit America's oldest public school, which was attended by Benjamin Franklin. You can also go to the Park Street Church where William Lloyd Garrison delivered one of the first major speeches against slavery. Boston museums are among the best in the United States. Don't forget to visit the famous Harvard University; its campus is located near Boston in Cambridge, which you can easily reach by subway. If you've only got time for one attraction, try the Institute for Contemporary Art (ICA).
